Hello Parents,

What is happening in the next couple of weeks:-

Mother's Day Stall - This week we have been running our Mother's Day Stall from 8.30am to 9 am. Thank you to the parents and teacher aides who have assisted us. Friday morning will be the last morning we are open so make sure you get in to grab some great little presents.

Book Fair - The Book Fair is being held next week (15th May to the 19th May). Bookfair will be open from 8:30am to 9:00am and 3:00pm to 3:30pm each day. Come on in and check out the huge variety of books and goodies available. We are still looking for parent volunteers to assist at the Bookfair. If you are able to help out please contact the school office.

Volunteers required – The P and C are in need of parent helpers to run the Bookfair Stall. We are also looking for volunteers to help out at the Tuckshop on a Monday & Tuesday. Thank you to Mrs. Alison Stanford who is currently doing the tuckshop every Monday & Tuesday. If you are able to help out on any day at the tuckshop please contact the school office.

Next P and C Meeting - Our next meeting is going to be held on Thursday 18th May at 5.30 in the staffroom. An important item that is going to be discussed is the new uniform. If you would like to have a say on the new design and have a look at some samples please come along.

Enjoy your fortnight and Happy Mother's Day to all the Mums and Grandmothers.
